

Provision number	Original text
P1	Poultry Carcasses (other than air chilled) with weight between 1.8 Kg to 3.6 kg must be continuously chilled to reach less than 4°C in an additional time of 4 hours
P2	Grade Requirements for Canada C1 6. An ovine carcass graded Canada C1 must have (a) the maturity characteristics set out in Schedule 1 – Maturity Characteristics for Lamb Carcasses to this Part; (b) a minimum musculature score of 1 for each primal cut or a minimum average musculature score of less than 2.6; (c) flank muscles that are pink to light red in colour; and (d) a fat covering that (i) is firm and white or slightly tinged with a reddish or amber colour, and (ii) is less than 4 mm in thickness at the measurement site.
P3	221 A label that is applied or attached to a consumer prepackaged food must bear on the principal display panel a declaration of net quantity of the food.
P4	90 (1) Any person who sends or conveys a food from one province to another, or who imports or exports it, any holder of a licence to slaughter a food animal, to manufacture, process, treat, preserve, grade, store, package or label a food or to store and handle an edible meat product in its imported condition and any person who grows or harvests fresh fruits or vegetables that are to be sent or conveyed from one province to another or exported must, if they provide the food to another person, prepare and keep documents that set out (a) the common name of the food, a lot code or other unique identifier that enables the food to be traced and the name and principal place of business of the person by or for whom the food was manufactured, prepared, produced, stored, packaged or labelled; (b) except if they provide the food to another person as a sale at retail, the date on which it was provided and the name and address of the person to whom it was provided; (c) if they were provided the food by another person, the name and address of that person and the date on which it was provided; and (d) the name of any food commodity that they incorporated into the food or from which they derived the food and, if they were provided the food commodity by another person, the name and address of that person and the date on which it was provided.